

POLICY 310 STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

The Board of Education of School District No. 83 (North Okanagan-Shuswap) recognizes its responsibility in providing safe, respectful and inclusive learning and working environments for all members of its school communities.

~~Establishes this regulation in accordance with District Policy, the BC Ministry of Education, the School Act, and the Provincial Standards for Codes of Conduct Order.~~

This student code of conduct introduces a framework for expectations around student behaviours to establish optimal learning and working environments.

The Board expects that ~~the~~ Principals, in collaboration with the school community will develop a school code of conduct that aligns with this regulation policy.

Guidelines

1. Scope

1.1. The District Code of Conduct applies to students of the district engaged in, present at, or attending:

- a) School or any activity on school premises whether during a regular school day, outside the regular school day, or on a day that is not a school day;
- b) Travel on a school bus or other transportation contracted or arranged by the District or school;
- c) Any activity sponsored by, organized by or participated in, by the school regardless of the time or place;
- d) Any activity in and around the school premises occurring during the school day that involves the property of neighbouring residents; and,
- e) Any activity which may have a connection with the maintenance of order and discipline at a school.

1.2. The school principal has the authority to respond to student misconduct occurring outside the school day or school-related or sponsored activities (e.g., cyberbullying in the evening) where the principal determines the conduct may negatively impact the school environment. The district and school will cooperate with outside agencies in cases where students violate the law.

2. Conduct Expectations

2.1. The Board expects students to conduct themselves in the following manner:

in a student complying with expected conduct standards. In such instances, disciplinary actions must recognize and adhere to certain principles.

- 3.2. Each instance of student misconduct must be dealt with on an individual basis taking into consideration the individual circumstances of the student.
- 3.3. Each case of student misconduct shall be dealt with as expeditiously as possible.
- 3.4. Students who contravene the District or School Code of Conduct will be subject to discipline reflective of the age, maturity, and developmental level of the student and the severity and frequency of the unacceptable conduct:
- a) Disciplinary consequences should be progressive in nature;
  - b) As students become older, behaviour expectations change and consequences of unacceptable behaviour should reflect this;
  - c) Severe, pervasive or retaliatory behaviour will warrant stronger consequences and may lead to a Violence Threat Risk Assessment (VTRA) and referral to the Superintendent of Schools; and,
  - d) Discipline will be fair, consistent and meaningful, for the purpose of making restitution and enhancing student responsibility and self-discipline.
- 3.5. Special considerations may apply to students with special needs if these students are unable or do not comply with a code of conduct due to a disability of an intellectual, physical, sensory, emotional or behavioural nature. When students with identified special needs require intervention regarding their conduct, the school administrator will ensure that:
- a) Such students have been adequately assessed;
  - b) Appropriate interventions are applied before discipline is considered;
  - c) The grounds for suspension are clear and appropriate;
  - d) Meaningful education programs or interventions are offered during any period of suspension;
  - e) Planning is undertaken for successful re-entry of the student if suspension is imposed; and,
  - f) In cases of property damage, the School Act assigns a liability for costs to the parents and student(s) involved.

Student suspension from school is an action of last resort when all other efforts have failed. In such cases, the Principal will follow Board Policy ~~1030—Student Suspensions regarding student suspensions. and corresponding regulation.~~

4. School Code of Conduct

4.1. Each school shall establish a written School Code of Conduct, reflective of the District Code of Conduct, that will govern student behaviour and discipline. School principals will ensure these codes are:

- a) Reflective of the standards outlined in the Ministry of Education’s Safe and Caring School Communities, 2004;
- b) Developed collaboratively with school communities;
- c) Made available to the public;
- d) Distributed to students, parents/guardians, and employees of the School Board at the beginning of each school year;
- e) Provided to students who enroll in the school during the school year;
- f) Displayed prominently in the school;
- g) Reviewed annually with staff, students, and parents/guardians; and,
- h) Actively incorporated in the classroom and school experience.
